2. The final review officer or committee may request any additional information it deems necessary to make a decision, including having the claimant submit to a medical exam;

3. The final review officer or committee shall notify the claimant in writing of its decision, including an explanation of the decision and his or her right to judicial review;

4. Subject to the need for a reasonable extension of time due to matters beyond the control of the benefit plan, the final review officer or committee shall review the determination and issue a decision no later than forty-five (45) days from the date the notice of contest is received. No legal action may be brought by or with respect to a claimant to recover benefits under the benefit plan before the foregoing claim procedures have been exhausted;

5. If any part of an adverse benefit determination is upheld by the final review officer or committee, the claimant may then file a petition for review with the Commission sitting en banc within one (1) year after the date the claimant receives notice that the adverse benefit determination, or part thereof, was upheld. Section 1132(e)(1), and shall possess adjudicative authority to render decisions in individual proceedings by claimants to recover benefits due to the claimant under the terms of the claimant's employer's plan, to enforce the claimant's rights under the terms of the plan, or to clarify the claimant's rights to future benefits under the terms of the plan;

Any party aggrieved by the judgment, decision, or award made by an administrative law judge may, within ten (10) days of issuance, appeal to the Commission. After hearing arguments the Commission may reverse or modify the decision of the administrative law judge only if it determines that the decision was against the clear weight of the evidence or contrary to law. All such proceedings of the Commission shall be recorded by a court reporter. Any judgment of the Commission which reverses a decision of the administrative law judge shall contain specific findings relating to the reversal. Any award by the administrative law judge or Commission shall be limited to benefits payable under the terms of the benefit plan and, to the extent provided herein, attorney fees and costs; and

7. If the claimant appeals to the Commission and any part of the adverse benefit determination is upheld, he or she may appeal to the Oklahoma Supreme Court. The judgment, decision or award of the Commission shall be final and conclusive on all questions within its jurisdiction between the parties unless an action is commenced in the Supreme Court of this state to review the judgment, decision or award within twenty (20) days of being sent to the parties. Any judgment, decision or award made by an administrative law judge shall be stayed until all appeal rights have been waived or exhausted. The Supreme Court may modify, reverse, remand for rehearing, or set aside the judgment or award only if it was:

a. in violation of constitutional provisions,

b. in excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the Commission,

c. made on unlawful procedure,

Supreme Court a certified copy of the judgment, decision or award of the Commission attached to a petition which shall specify why the decision was contrary to law erroneous or illegal. The proceedings shall be heard in a summary manner and shall have precedence over all other civil cases in the Supreme Court, except preferred Corporation Commission appeals. The Supreme Court shall require the claimant appealing party to file within forty-five (45) days from the date of the filing of an appeal, or a judgment appealed from, a transcript of the record of the proceedings before the Commission, or such later time as may be granted by the Supreme Court on application and for good cause shown. The action shall be subject to the law and practice applicable to comparable civil actions cognizable in the Supreme Court.

C. If any of the provisions in paragraphs 5 through 7 of subsection B of this section are determined to be unconstitutional or otherwise unenforceable by the final nonappealable ruling of a court of competent jurisdiction, then the following minimal appeal procedures will go into effect:
1. The appeal shall be heard by a final review officer or committee consisting of at least three people that were not. No final review officer or member of such committee shall be involved in the original adverse benefit determination or be an employee of the employer sponsoring the benefit plan.
