Research Analysis

The committee substitute to HB 2260 provides a victim of rape, forcible sodomy, a sex offense, kidnapping, assault and battery with a deadly weapon or member of the immediate family of a victim of first-degree murder may petition for an emergency temporary order or emergency ex parte order regardless of any relationship or scenario. The measure requires that emergency temporary ex parte orders be heard within fourteen days after issuance. The court shall provide a list of available court dates for hearings. The measure provides that the court shall not consider a "no contact order as condition of bond" as a factor when determining whether the petitioner is eligible for relief.
