Bill Analysis

HB 3372 authorizes operator to release a vehicle to a legal representative or an immediate family member who is within the first or second degree of consanguinity or affinity if the owner of the vehicle is incapacitated or deceased. The legal representative or family member must provide a notarized affidavit describing his or her relationship to the owner of the motor vehicle and proof of identity in accordance with the Department of Public Safety's rules. The measure also increases the license fee for a wrecker or towing service from $100.00 to $500.00. The fee for renewal is also increased from $50 to $250.
