Bill Analysis

HB 3398 requires any teacher employed by an Oklahoma public school who does not have an Oklahoma criminal history record check as well as a national criminal history record check on file, to complete a background check upon the next renewal of his or her Standard Teaching Certificate. The measure further requires any other person employed by an Oklahoma public school to have these background checks completed by July 1, 2022. The measure prohibits school boards from entering into contracts with teachers who do not hold an Oklahoma criminal history record check.
